

Programme - English

Day One – 5th March

10.00 – Gegana KBR and Indonesian CBRN

Desman Tarigan, Commander CBRN Unit,
Indonesian Police

10.30 – Transforming Singapore’s CBR Capability through innovation

Michael Chua, Director HazMat Department,
Singapore Civil Defence Force

11.00 – Narcotic and explosive detection

Brigadier General Sulistyo Pudjo, Head of PR and Protocol,
Badan Narkotika Nasional

11.30 – Biological agent identification with Biofire

Matt Scullion, VP of Sales and Marketing, BioFire Defense

12.00 – Lunch & Demonstration

Biological sample collection, packaging and identification

13.00 – Detection, identification, and decon in one vehicle

Iain Findlay, Director CRF-I, on behalf of Cristanini

13.30 – Health crisis management

Dr Rita Djupuri, Head of Health Crisis Management
Facilitation Division, Ministry of Health

14.00 – Rapiscan and counter terrorism

Rob Harvey, VP Sales, Asia Pacific Rapiscan Systems

14.30 – Break

15.00 – Follow the trace – The evolution of the inorganic threat

Samantha Ollerton, CEO, Greyscan Australia PCE

15.30 – National policy

Mr Khairul, Senior Nuclear Security Officer,
National Nuclear Energy Agency of Indonesia

16.00 – The Need to raise awareness of CBRN Threats

Dr Isro Samihardjo, Head of Commission for Government
Affairs of Jakarta Research Council

16.30 – Rescue task force applied to chemical-terrorism attacks

Jason Krause, Associate Director,
Operations and Plans, Louisiana State University

Day Two – 6th March

10.00 – Panel discussion

Covid and what it could mean to Indonesia.

Panel Includes::

Dr Rita Djupuri, Head of Health Crisis Management
Facilitation Division, Ministry of Health

Dr Isro Samihardjo, Head of Commission for Government
Affairs of Jakarta Research Council

Jason Krause, Associate Director,
Operations and Plans, Louisiana State University

Matt Scullion, VP of Sales and Marketing, BioFire Defense

11.00 – Diagnostics for outbreaks and disease surveillance

Matt Scullion, VP of Sales and Marketing, BioFire Defense

11.30 – Safety and Security During Suspected WMD Sampling Missions

Jason Krause, Associate Director,
Operations and Plans, Louisiana State University

12.00 – ChemProX – New generation handheld chemical detector

Krister Liljegren, Area Manager, Environics